Sunday the 6th April dawned to grey skies but promising shooting conditions. But by seven o'clock it was snowing heavily. Most of the competitors expected at the Short Range Championship Final at Bookham braved the uncomfortable road conditions, and by ten o'clock the snow had eased sufficiently to start on time. Despite all, good scores were achieved all round, and congratulations to Tim Hammond for taking first place with a close finish between Dave Crispin and Paul Giles for second and third place, with all other competitors treading on their heels. Thanks to Mike and Janet Bailey for shivering as Range Officers, Mike for officiating at the presentation of awards, and Bookham Rifle Club for being our hosts.
